The Best Equipped Expedition That Has Left the United States.

Gen. Gomes, Reported Killed, Has Invaded Camagusy at the Head of 2,500 Men-A Party of Cubans Left St. Augustine, Fis., in the Early Morning.

KEY WEST, Fla., June 10 .- It is now known that the expedition which left Wednesday night landed on the north of Cuba, in the province of Las Villas, near Sagua Lachico. The expedition was under the command of Gen. Roloff. Immediately upon the landing they were joined by 2,000 insurgents, under command of Zayas, Castillo and Reyes. It was undoubtedly the best equipped expedition that has left the United States in the cause of Cuban liberty.

Gen. Gomes, reported killed by the Spanish newspapers, has invaded Camaguey at the head of 2,500 of the best equipped men. At Camaguey Gomez was joined by 700 men. The invasion of Camaguey is considered of great advantage to the insurgents. The province of Camaguey is guarded by the best Spanish forces. Martinez Campon, who was in Camaguey at the time of the invasion by Gomez, immediately left for Havana and called a meeting of the reformest and conservative parties, with the idea of a fusion. The home rule party, being ignored, has decided to disband, the object being to create bad blood or a race war, Cubans against Spaniards. Many young men of the best families of Cienfuegos, Santa Clara and Remedios are joining the insurgents. In insurgent official circles the death of Marti is denied. It is reported that a Cuban who deserted insurgents stole Marti's correspondence and delivered the same to Gen. Salcedo. This is the foundation for the report of Marti's death.

It is rumored that another expedition has landed, consisting of three generals, one American, a South American and a Cuban.

Jero Buden, a prominent member of the home rule party and a newspaper man, who left the island of Cuba at the commencement of the revolution, has landed with an expedition of twenty-four men from Monte Cristo, Santa Domingo. Desertions from the Spanish army are reported daily, and much trouble is anticipated from the troops on account of the soldiers refusing to obey orders.

Woodward, the reporter for a New York paper, reported killed by the Spanish papers, finding it impossible to get back from the insergent lines, has joined the same, and been given command of a company under Maceo. The man killed is said to be a newspaper man named Boyton, who was trying to sell a dynamite machine to the insurgents, which he offered for $20,-000. It is rumored in this city that Campos has liberated all political prisoners at Santiago.

St. AUGUSTINE, Fla., June 10 .- It is here Sunday morning while the town firearms and provisions. The steamer Organita is preparing to leave for Mantanzas on Tuesday, and expects to carry quite a party.

KILLS HER ASSAILANT.

A Very Strange Affair to Omaha, Resulting in a Man's Death.

OMAHA, Neb., June 10.-Mrs. J. K. Ish shot and killed W. H. Chapple Sunday night at her residence because of his attempt to assault her. Mr. and Mrs. Ish are very wealthy and prominent people. She is only 20 years of age. A few weeks ago she bought a repair it. He made several visits, and at one of them made indecent proposals to Mrs. Ish, which she resented. Sunday he called at the Ish house expecting Mr. Ish to be away. He came, he said, to repair the machine, and during the absence of Mr. Ish from the room he attempted to assault Mrs. 1sh. Her husband rushed to her rescue, but was unable to gain admittance to the room. Thrusting his revolver through the door, Mrs. Ish seized it and fired four shots into Chapple, killing him instantly. Chapple had a bad reputation. Mrs. Ish was arrested.

Death of Whitelaw Reid's Mother. NEW YORK, June 10 .- Hon. Whitelaw Reid received a telegram Sunday that his mother had died at 2 o'clock in the morning at Cedarville, near Xenia, O. Mr. and Mrs. Reid left this city at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, on the Pennsylvania railroad, for Xenia. Mrs. Reid, the deceased, was born at Rieigate, Caledonia county, Vt., in 1804. Her maiden name was Marian Whitelaw Reynolds. She was married, in 1826, to Robert Charlton Reid. Mr. and Mrs. Reid went west, and lived happily together until Mr. Reid's death, in 1866. POST OFFICE RATS.

An Iowa Man's Unique Chmmunication to the Department About Their Destruc-fice department is in receipt of a unique communication from C. S. Fox. of West Liberty, Ia. Mr. Fox having heard that the United States government make an appropriation for the post office cat at St. Paul, and being of an ingenious turn of mind and a patriotic disposition, writes to the department that, after experimenting for several years he has finally secured a solution of the rat problem.

He claims to have invented or discovered a preparation of small cost, which will effectually dispose of the rodents, and its continued use will cause them to desert their fondest resorts. The formula for this preparation he offers to the department for the modest sum of $250. By the adoption of it he firmly believes the department can save much of the money now expended by it for the support of its feline auxiliaries, and dispose of the surplus rodents in a much more satisfactory manner. He further believes that by extending its use to the other public buildings throughout the country much benefit would result to the general public.

It is not generally known that nearly all of the post offices have one or more office cats. While they are not borne upon the register as such, and receive no pay for their services, they are given their rooms, and an allowance is made for their support. Most of these allowances are included in the miscellaneous items, but for some cats direct appropriations are made. The New York Tabby receives nine dollars a year, but as many assistants are needed in the various stations, her perquisites are cut down until they are no more than those of the Omaha cat, which receives only $2,50. These small appropriations are eked out, in most cases, by the rats and mice caught, which are the personal property of the cat. Generally the cat becomes a favorite with the clerks and carriers, and receives tips from their lunch baskets. So that the post office cat is a creature to be envied.

What will become of him if the department should adopt Mr. Fox's preparation, Mr. Fox does not say. Probably poor puss, his occupation gone, would be thrown upon a heartless world. However, there is surely enough sentiment throughout the country to prevent such a sad fate to poor Tom and Tabby. This sentiment can not be measured by the paltry dollars and cents which would be saved by such an arrangement as Mr. Fox uggests.

FIREMEN KILLED

While En Route From Wheeling to Cameron, W. Va .- Their Train Was Wrecked. FAIRMONT, W. Va., June 10,-About 7 clock Sunday night fire broke out in Crawford's livery stable, at Cameron, a town of 1,200 population, between here and Wheeling, and at midnight the stable, hotel, drug and twogeneral stores and several dwellings were destroyed, the post office, Baltimore & Ohio Railway Co.'s warehouse and many more dwellings were in flames, and there was every prospect that the en-tire town would be in ashes by dayreported that a party of Cubans left light. High winds were prevailing, and the water supply of the town was was wrapped in slumber, for Mantan- exhausted, with the exception of that contained in the railroad compa tanks, which was being used as a last resort with but very little effect. Aid was asked both from here and Wheeling, and a steam fire en-gine left the latter place at 11 o'clock for the scene, though it is thought the lack of water will render it useless. Telegraphic communication is now cut off, which is taken as an indication that the Baltimore and Ohio depot has been burned. The loss at midnight was estimated at $50,000. No loss of life is reported.

WHEELING, W. Va., June 19 .- Bulletin.-The train carrying a detachment sewing machine, and Chapple, one of the Wheeling fire department to of the agents, was ca'led in to Cameron, W. Va., was wrecked en route, and several are reported killed.

ARMENIAN COMMISSION.

European Delegates Refuse to Have More

LONDON, June 10 .- The Daily News Monday published a dispatch from Turkish Armenia, dated June 3, and sent via Kars, Russia, dated June 9. The dispatch says that the Armenian commission that was sitting at Moush closed on May 31, the European delegates telling the Turkish members that they could have nothing more to do with them. The final cause of the rupture was the refusal of the Turkish commissioners to examine important witnesses, basing their refusal on purely farcial grounds.

O'The Daily News, commenting on the dispatch, will say that the attitude of the Turkish commissioners has been invariably increasingly dishonest, and that their recourse to bribery and coercion was prompted and ratified by the highest authority in Constantinople. Great Britain has appointed a vice consul for the Vilayet of Bitlis. He will reside at Moush.

Sunday Fire at Baltimore. BALTIMORE, June 10.-One of the most disastrous Sunday conflagrations that ever visited this city occurred on East Monument street Sunday. One hundred persons were rendered homeless and $125,000 went up in smoke. The fire was discovered a little before 11 o'clock in the planing mill of A. Storck & Co. The flames spread to the lumber yards adjoining, and then to several dwellings. Ten houses adja-cent, on East Monument street, and nine residences on north Front street. in the rear, were gutted, the burned area covering over 1,000 square feet.

DON'T LIKE IT

WASHINGTON, June 10. The post of Germany Very Much Put Out Over the Fact

> That France and Russia Secured the $80,000,000 Chinese Loan.

The German Syndicate Will Seek an Entente With the English Financial House in the Matter of a Good Share of the Larger Loan.

BERLIN, June 10 .- The news of the Franco-Russian loan of $80,000,000 to hina has proved to be a disagreeable surprise both to the government and to the leaders in financial circles who had been relying upon official action to secure a large share of the Chinese loan for Germany. Immediately upon receipt of the news of the Russian coup he members of a German syndicate, Royal Seehandlung is the head, communicated with the financial department of the government upon the prospects of Germany's securing the main indemnity loan, which will amount to $150,000,000 or $200,000,000, and negotiations were also resumed by the syndicate with the London Rothschilds on the question of the co-operation of English bankers in the scheme.

The syndicate has received prompt assurance that the government will intervene to obtain for Germany a share in such further financial arrangements as China may require. As the $80,000,-000 now guaranteed by Russia covers only the indemnity to Japan for the surrender of the Lia-Tong peninsula, German financial houses are confident that China must have recourse to them to float the larger loan, which Russia could not guarantee nor French financiers supply without outside assist-ance. The German syndicate, with the approval of the government, will, therefore, seek an entente with the English financial houses in the matter of the larger loan.

In the meantime the political importance of the Franco-Russian arrangement is keenly felt, and it is probable that that loan will not be admitted into the German and English markets. This, at least, is the feeling of the syndicate, which includes in its membership the Bleichroeders, the National bank of Germany, Behren & Sons, of Hamburg; Von der Heydt & Co., the Dresden bank, the Schaafthausen bank and other leading financial institutions.
